Report on Girl Child Education Awareness Camp

On 9 September 2017, School of Education Organized a one day Camp on Girl Child Education Awareness in the Adjacent Vicinity of University Campus Dhanor, Rajouri. 15 girls students along with the faculty members headed by Prof. G.M Malik, Dean and Head of Department reached the spot at 11: am . A well organized team of teachers and students of the school took up the cause in a meticulous manner to make an impact onto the villagers. Teachers visited the homes of the villagers to discuss and convince parents to send their daughters to school. Prof. G.M. Malik deliberated a valuable lecture to the parents of the girl child about the importance of Education. "The purpose of education is not only to get a job but to live a respectable and satisfactory life", he added.

The girls students of M.Ed. talk to the girls and give an ear to them also .The teachers listened their problems and counsel them by providing guidance.

As a result of the campaign people have realized the significance of girl child education. Parents have shown their interests in enrolling their daughters in the school as well. The Department has succeeded to a great extent in changing the mindset of the village towards girl education.

At the end, the Prof. G.M. Malik expresses his happiness on the success of the camp and shows his concern on organizing such kind of camps so that the society keeps getting benefits from the department.
