REPORT ON YOUTH AWARENESS CAMP

On 11 November 2017 on the National Education Day, School of Education has organized a one-day camp for the youth of the Rajouri. This camp was open for all the youth of the Rajouri. School of Education has chosen the national Education day with the purpose to Educate and create awareness about the different topics among the Youth of Rajouri. A well-organized team of teachers and students of the school took up the cause in a meticulous manner to make an impact onto the youth. The faculty members headed by Prof. G.M Malik, Dean and Head of Department reached the spot at 11:00am.

Prof. G.M. Malik shows his concern for the Education of the youth. He laid stress on the importance of education for successful and respectable life. He further guided them to go for higher studies and aware them about the different organization which provides scholarship to the students. He also talk about the different Programs available in the Baba Ghulam Shah Badshah University and motivated them to join the University.

Dr. Nasreen Qusar, Assistant professor, deliberated to the youth of Rajouri about the harmful consequences of Drugs on their life. Alcohol and other drug use in the adolescent population carries a high risk for school underachievement, delinquency, and depression. Being aware of these risk factors can assist families, health professionals, schools and other community workers with identifying at risk youth and aid in reducing or eliminating risk factors through prevention and treatment programs.

Ms. Rafia Khan, Coordinator of the event, concluded the camp. She says, it is the responsibility of the School of Education to create awareness among the youth about the harmful effects of drugs and motivate them for higher studies. She thanked the youth of the Rajouri , Prof. G.M. Malik and all the faculty members for making this camp successful.
