Motivational Lectures on Empowerment of students, an Indian Army Initiative held in BGSB University On 13th March, 2023 the Indian Army under the operation sadbhavana organized a lecture series in collaboration with BGSB University Rajouri. The program was held in the University Auditorium BGSBU and about 400 students from different departments of the University attended the program. The motivation of youth is one of the key focus areas of the Indian army apart from routine operational commitments. Two lectures were conducted in series by two internationally acclaimed speakers. The first speaker was Dr. Shamim Banday, Associate Professor and a certified motivational speaker from GDC Poonch. He shed light on the various motivational parameters of a student. He focused on the importance of proper planning along with absolute commitment in achieving a goal in life. The other speaker was Mr. JPS Chauhan, General Manager and Plant Head with Anand Group of Industries. He spoke on the expectation of multinational companies and how a student should prepare to get placed in MNCs. His lecture was instrumental with regard to the need of skill development in the student community for better career advancement. The chief guest of the program was Sh. Mohd Ishaq, Registrar BGSBU. He in the concluding remarks appreciated the efforts made by Indian Army in upliftment of student community through various schemes under Sadbhavena operation. Col. Predeep Khanchy, Guest of Honour, also spoke on the occasion and briefed the gathering about the program. After the culmination of the program, the speakers along with organizers from the Indian Army met Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. Akbar Masood in his office and discussed various initiatives to be taken care of in the near future. He conveyed his deep sense of appreciation for organizing such wonderful lectures. Er. Malik Mubasher Hassan, Principal University Polytechnic, Dr. Parvez Abdulla, Dr. Md Affan Coordinator Department of Arabic, Dr. Danish Iqbal, Media Advisor, Dr. Manzar Alam, Assistant Professor Department of Arabic, Faculty members and officers of the University also attended the program.
