

REPORT ON National Unity Day

On 31, October 2022, National Unity Day was celebrated by the School of Engineering & Technology, Baba Ghulam shah Badshah University, Rajouri. The day was celebrated to mark the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel who played major role in the political integration of India. The celebration started with the welcome address by Prof. Asif Husain (Dean SoET). On this day a pledge was also taken by the students and faculty members (teaching and non-teaching). This day is significant for the following reasons:

- Its goal is to reassert Indians' shared togetherness.
- It wants to keep the people united despite their differences.
- National Unity Day serves as a reminder to Indian citizens of the struggles and sacrifices Sardar Patel and other activists made to bring India together.

