Organized by:
Department of Education
Baba Ghulam Shah Badshah Rajouri, J&K

A training on 'Joyful Learning' in two phases for Pre-school and Primary school teachers was organized by the School of Education in collaboration P.S.T.E. branch of DIET and coordinated by Dr. Nasreen Qusar, on the following objectives;

- To have an understanding of the significance of play for the overall development of the child
- To plan appropriate activities for play-way activities
- To understand the different values of play and the role of teachers in motivating children to play
- To identify, plan and organize different types of play
- To understand the importance of the availability of play space for children and the role of different kinds of play equipment and play spaces in motivating children to play creatively
- To prepare play materials related to child's development.

A total of 50 (Fifty) participants attended the training recording a 100% attendance. The classroom were organized mainly into group activities, allowing the participants to be more engaging and 'hands – on', creating a conducive classroom environment for 'learning by doing'.
