Report on One Day Workshop “How to Communicate Effectively as a Teacher”

On 20 April, 2018, School of Education organized one day workshop on “How to communicate effectively as a teacher” for the professional development of Faculty member of the University in the seminar hall of the Department. Dr. Sachhi sood, Assistant Professor, Department of English, BGSB University invited as a Resource person. The purpose of the workshop was to provide professional development in effective communication among the teachers of the Department. Prof. G.M. Malik, Dean and Head, School of Education welcomed the Resource person and dwell on the importance of this workshop for the development of the teachers. Ten faculty member of the Department participated in the workshop.

Dr. Sacchi Sood, the Resource person initiated the workshop by explaining the Concept of the Communication and its importance in daily life. Learning is a process of sharing, engaging with, and responding to new and different ideas. Talk is “the most powerful tool of communication in the classroom, and it’s fundamentally central to the acts of teaching and learning.” She said. Communication is essential for any relationship, whether it’s a spouse, friend, or colleague. The need for good communication increases tenfold when you are dealing with an entire classroom of students with whom you need to communicate and who need to communicate with each other in a healthy, effective way. She explained the different techniques for improving the communication skills.

The session was ended with the question-answer round where all the queries raised by the faculty member effectively answered by the resource person Dr. Sachi Sood. The workshop was very interesting and benefited for the professional development of the faculty members.
