One-Day Workshop on "Women Empowerment"

School of Education has Organised one Day Workshop On " Women Empowerment" in the seminar hall of the Department on 20 February 2018 with a purpose to understand the true meaning of empowerment and how to fight for their rights in the light of the religion. Dr. Romina, Head of the English Department invited as a Key Speaker. She is also the head of the Women grievance Cell. The girls of the University share their problems with her without any hesitation and she not only solve the problems but also counsel them to get back in their life happily. Dr. Nasreen Qusar, Assistant Professor, School of Education presented a welcome note to the Key speaker. Dr. Romina Rashid, and he also explained the need of such kinds of workshop in the Department. Forty participants attended the workshop.

Dr. Romina Rashid, The key speaker, started the workshop with the meaning of Empowerment "Empowerment is the process which enables one to gain power, authority and influence upon others, institution and society." Whereas Women's empowerment is all about equipping and allowing women to make life-determining decisions through the different problems in society. Women's empowerment and achieving gender equality is essential for our society to ensure the sustainable development of the country, she added. She dwells on the rights and importance of women in the religion. She explained the importance of women and their rights in the light of religion.

She ended the workshop by taking queries by the participants and answers their queries effectively in the light of contemporary world. Dr. Nasreen qusar thanked the Key speaker and the participants for making the workshop successful. She further congratulates Dean and head, School of Education, prof. G.M. Malik for organising such kinds of workshop in the Department. Overall the workshop was very helpful not for the women but for men of the society as well.
